Unless otherwise agreed in writing or stated on the invoice, payment is due upon delivery.

After the due date, interest will accrue in accordance with the applicable default interest rate.

To ensure transparency and traceability regarding the CO<sub>2</sub> footprint of our cardboard products, and in compliance with legal requirements related to kilometer-based tolls and extended producer responsibility, an environmental fee of DKK 74,50 will be added to each order.

Packaging Tax

As extended producer responsibility and packaging reporting requirements take effect on October 1, 2025, a packaging tax will be applied to orders of standard (generic) products from this date. This tax is outside the responsibility of Boxen Emballage A/S.

Orders and Order Confirmation

Once you place an order, you will receive an order confirmation by email.

The agreement becomes binding when you have received this confirmation.

If an error occurs in the cardboard box calculator, Boxen Emballage A/S reserves the right to cancel the order. You will be contacted as soon as possible to find a suitable solution. Boxen Emballage A/S cannot be held liable for any losses resulting from such cancellations.
